

Lunahuana – Sunny Cañete River Valley!

Getting there: There are no recommended (safe) public transportation options to take you all the way to Lunahuana— it's best to drive, or hire a taxi/ bus company to take you.

My rafting trip in July 2012. The best time to go rafting with small children is May through October, as the water levels make difficult rapids in January.

Attractions in the Lunahuana area:

- ◆ White water Rafting
- ◆ Hotels by the river
- ◆ Zip lining
- ◆ Plaza de Armas
- ◆ Horseback riding
- ◆ Fresh shrimp dishes!
- ◆ Wine and Pisco

Recommendations:

Where to stay:

Villa el Sol Hotel has lots of space and a pool. There are many large hotels right on the river that are great for singles and families.

Where to Visit:

There are many small haciendas with gardens that provide nice lunches, such as Recoleta de Santiago.
